TU EZ RELEASES 'C'MON, LET'S GO'

A melodic, dance-driven record built for movement and late-night energy

Toronto-based independent artist Tu Ez has released C'mon, Let's Go, an upbeat single blending melodic vocals, dance-driven rhythm and a polished feel-good energy. The record moves naturally between R&B, pop, melodic rap and dance influences while keeping a distinct Toronto atmosphere.

The release is built around motion: the kind of record designed for nights out, summer playlists, repeat plays and visual moments. Its music-first world connects the song to Toronto city lights, chemistry, confidence and cinematic imagery.

C'mon, Let's Go was released August 21, 2026 and is available on Spotify. The official video is available on YouTube. Honk Magazine featured the release as a summer-ready rush of melody and rhythm.
